NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second years, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, 1862, is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	148,000
Aggregate	215,375

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, THE TRIBUNE has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

THE TRIBUNE devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of the momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

Details of the Late Cavalry Fight.

The Washington Star of Wednesday evening contains the following account of the late cavalry fight:

The whole of Gregg's division was ordered from Bolton Station on Saturday towards Culpepper, and arrived at Culpepper at four o'clock in the afternoon. From thence the 2d brigade of the 2d division, was ordered to Fox Mountain to support Kilpatrick, but finding that Kilpatrick did not need reinforcements, the brigade left him on Sunday morning, and returned to the division at Culpepper on Saturday night. General Gregg moved to Sulphur Springs at nine o'clock at night. In the morning two regiments, the 4th and 13th Pennsylvania, were sent forward to Jefferson, about five miles from Sulphur Springs, and the first were sent out towards Little Washington to reconnoiter. The last named regiments encounted a large force of the enemy just beyond Amissville, and were surrounded, but gallantly fought their way out and crossed the river at Walisten, about twelve miles above Sulpher Springs.

About ten o'clock in the morning the enemy advanced on the Fourth Pennsylvania Cavalry, which were at Jefferson, with cavalry showing heavy infanty supports in their rear, when our cavalry seeing they were being overpowered, fell back slowly, contesting the ground, to a large forest this side of Jefferson, where Gregg, who led these regiments in person, dismounting a portion of his men and sent them out as skirmishers, their horses having been sent back to Sulphur Springs. After stubbornly contesting the ground for nearly two hours, they were ordered to fall back slowly, and as they were doing so a heavy infantry force of the enemy was discovered on each flank, and at the same time three regiments of cavalry, having made a wide detour, attacked them in the rear. At this time the Tenth New York was sent to the support of Gregg and Reed.—Battery M, of the Second United States Artillery, opened on the rebel cavalry, but owing to the short range of the guns, which were brass Napoleon's, no serious damage was inflicted on the enemy by them. The Fourth and Thirteenth were now pressed severely in the front, and our centre broken, and at the same time they were attacked on each flank, and in the rear. Our men cut their way through, and escaped across the river with heavy loss.

The 16th Pennsylvania was now dismounted and thrown out along the river bank as skirmishers, while the 8th was also dismounted and ordered to support the battery, which had only four short range guns. The enemy opened on us with some twenty pieces of artillery, but our troops gallantly held the ground for several hours, repulsing the charges of the enemy, and gradually fell back on the Fayetteville road, the enemy following, but keeping as a respectful distance.

Col. Gregg had but two aids with him, Lieutenants Martin and Cutler, and both were wounded, the former severely and the latter slightly.—Lieut. Adams, 4th Pennsylvania, Major Wilson, 8th Pennsylvania, Lieut. Col. Kettler, 1st New Jersey, Major Russell, 1st Maryland, were wounded. The loss of the second brigade, it is thought, will amount to about four hundred and fifty men in killed, wounded and missing. The 4th and 13th Pennsylvania regiments suffered most severely.

Col. Gregg is highly spoken of for the manner in which he fought his men, and it was owing to his skill and bravery that the 4th and 13th fought their way out of a precarious situation. He was at the head of his men in the thickest of the fight; and in several charges he took the lead during the engagement. The rebels charged the battery and captured one of the guns, but the 1st New Jersey cavalry gallantly charged back and recaptured the piece, which was immediately turned on them with good effect. Our cavalry yesterday held the enemy in check, and there was some little skirmishing, one man being wounded while on picket last evening.

DISCOVERY OF A SILVER MINE ON LAKE SUPERIOR.—There is considerable excitement just now in business circles connected with the Lake Superior trade in consequence of the discovery of an immense deposit of silver bearing lead in that famous region. Marquette county is the fortunate locality of this new discovery.—It is stated that the ore yields twenty per cent. of pure lead, and that every ton of lead yields twenty five pounds of silver, worth $300, besides the lead. Operations will ere long be commenced for removing the deposits."

TO CLEAN CANARY BIRDS.—For the benefit of our readers who may have canaries, we give the following, which we find in the Scientific American—very good authority in such matters: These pretty things are, like meaner objects, often covered with lice, and may be effectually relieved of them by placing a clean white cloth over their cage at night. In the morning it will be covered with small red spots, so small as hardly to be seen, except by the aid of a glass; these are lice, a source of great annoyance to these birds.

A Brave Man's Last Words—Letter from Spencer Kellogg Brown.

The Utica Herald publishes the following letter from Spencer Kellogg Brown, who was executed as a spy by the rebels, the last he ever wrote, addressed to his parents in that city:

CASTLE THUNDER, Va., Sept 28, '63.

Dear Father—By permission through the courtesy of Captain Alexander, I am enabled to write you a few lines. You, who before this have heard from me in regard to my situation here, can, I trust, bear it when I tell you that my days on earth are soon to be ended. Last Saturday I was court-martialed, and this morning, a short time since, I received notice of my sentence by Captain Alexander, who has since shown me every kindness consistent with duty.

Writing to my dear parents, I feel there can be no more comfort after such tidings, than to tell you that, I trust, by the mercy of our Heavenly Father, to die the death of a Christian. For more than a year since the commencement of my confinement, I have been trying to serve Him in my poor, feeble way, and I do not fear to go to Him. I would have loved to see you all again; God saw best not—why should we murmur? Comfort your hearts, my dear parents, by thoughts of God's mercy unto your son, and bow with reverence beneath the hand of Him who "doeth all things well." I have but little business to dispose of. Yourself or Uncle Cozzens, at St. Louis, will please draw my pay from the Government and invest it in United States bonds at present, the interest of which will be paid semi-annually to my wife * * * I sent a ring to my wife by a clergyman, Monday, last; I also sent a despatch to you which will arrive too late, as the time of my execution is fixed for day after to-morrow—Friday, September 25th. I will try to send a short letter to my wife, accompanying this.

* * * * Captain Alexander, commandant of the prison of the prison, deserves your respect and grateful remembrance for his kindness to your son in his last hours.

Dear parents, there are but few more moments left me. I will try to think often of you. God bless and comfort you; remember me kindly and respectfully to all my dear friends and relatives. Tell Kitty I hope to meet her again. Take care of Freddy for me; put him often in remembrance of me.

Dear mother, good-bye! God comfort you, my mother, and bless you with the love of happy children.—Farewell my father; we meet again by God's mercy.

SPENCER KELLOGG.

THE CONFEDERATE DEBT.—Among all loyal men there is a firm conviction and determination that in no event will the country be responsible for the debt of a thousand millions which the Confederates have incurred in waging their war against the nation. No settlement of the strife is legally or loyally conceivable in which the whole territory and population of the United States will not be taxed for the debt of the nation, and in which the holders of Confederate bonds and Confederate currency will not be compelled to suffer a total loss. At present their loss is ninety per cent on the par value; and before the war is concluded it will be greater still. The whole Confederate debt is simply an unequal, iniquitous, and financially bad mode of taxation, devised by treason to work the objects of treason. With the defeat of treason, it should become worthless.

Yet the Copperhead schemes of reconstruction implies the putting of this debt in a par with the Federal debt. By this scheme senators and representatives from the rebel States are to be invited to resume their seats in Congress, with any questions being asked, and by the aid of the Copperhead minority, to control the legislation of the country. There cannot be the slightest doubt that they would recognize the Confederate debt as a debt of the United States, and place it by law on an equality with Treasury notes. The result would be to send down the latter to price of the Confederate rags, and ruin all the holders. The scheme will fail because the Copperheads will be defeated, and because no reconstruction policy will be approved by the people which proposes to place the Government of the country in the hands of the enemies.

INWARD LIFE.—The age is splendid in its externalities. We have the most gorgeous upholstery of civilization that has ever been woven since the world was made, the most splendid implements, the most gorgeous vehicles; but I do not think we have as true an inward life, as correct a conscience, as deep and thoughtful a heart as the men of other ages have had. One of the great things we need is, to counterbalance this external tendency by coming back a little to the inward. And not only this, but we must remember that if we are living in the outward entirely, if externalities completely absorbs us, we are losing the real essence of all life.—E. H. Chapin.

☞ "Madam, a good many persons were disturbed at the concert last night by the crying of your baby."—"Well, I do wonder that such people will go to concerts!"

Union Feeling in Tennessee.

A private letter from Capt. William H. Harris, on the staff of Gen. Burnside, to his father, Senator Harris, of New York, fully confirms the reports of the joy expressed by the people of East Tennessee at their release from rebel despotism. We make the following interesting extract:

"As we approached the settled part of the country, we were greeted everywhere with shouts for the Union, cheers for the flag, and the most unmistakable evidences of loyalty. At every house the entire family would appear, often with buckets of fresh water and fruit for the welcome Yankees; and some of the people would scarcely ask for pay for the forage which we had seized to feed our animals, although the corn we had taken was all they had to look to for their winter's food. Sometimes the Stars and Stripes would be carried out to the gate by one of girls, and the General and staff would take off their hats, while the escort following gave three cheers. Old gray-haired men would come out and seize the General's hand, bidding him God speed, and men would flock in at every halt, to be armed and join us. The sufferings of these people have been terrible. I have seen them come from the caves of the mountains, where they have been hiding from the rebels for months.

"I have seen widows and orphans whose husbands and brothers and fathers have been murdered because they were Union men—no other crime being alleged. All kinds of atrocities have been committed. Death in the most horrid form has been visited upon every man who dared show himself, in this part of the country, unarmed in the rebel cause.

"'Glory be to God, the Yankees have come!' The Flag's come back to Tennessee!' Such were the welcomes all along the road, and as we entered Knoxville it was past all description. The people seemed frantic with joy. I never knew what the Love of Liberty was before. After two years of servitude under the most tyrannical despotism, they now hold up their heads and thank God they are free. The old flag has been hidden in mattresses and under carpets. It now floats to the breeze at every staff in East Tennessee. Ladies wear it—carry it—wave it. Little children clap their hands and kiss it."

The writer adds the important fact that he has got "over a hundred wagon loads of ammunition safely over the mountains, and five thousand stand of arms for the recruits that are constantly flocking to our standard."

Constitutions Created.

To build up a good Constitution, we must take good care of what we have and add to it by pretty hard work and moderate thought, until the age of forty-five; then there should be less work and more thought.

Bodily labor consolidates the constitution up to forty-five; then, mental labor preserves it, keeps it good to the verge of fourscore years, if the bodily activities are very moderate.—As witness, Humbolt, who was a great traveller in early life; but from fifty to ninety a great student. Many similar instances will occur to intelligent minds. The general idea is of great practical importance. Work hard until forty-five; think hard after, and all the while "temperate in all things." This is the way to live long.—[Dr. Hall.

☞ A singular and fatal accident happened in Pittsburg last week.—Two boys were playing "horse" in the streets, and used a cord, one end of which was tied to the shoulders of the lad acting as horse, while the other end was fastened to the wrist of the driver by a slip knot. While thus sporting, a street railway car came up, and the boys went in opposite directions to let it pass. This brought the cord across the track, and the horses striking against it, jerked the lads in front of the wheels of the car, which passed over them. One boy was instantly crushed to death, and the other will probably die.

☞ "BETTER DIE THAN BE CONQUERED."—The Richmond Whig has an editorial article under the above caption, which reveals a consciousness that, with all their boastings, the rebels feel their cause is lost. The Whig threatens that in the last resort the rebels will "take to the woods and the wilderness, like savages, and there fight against hunger and cold" as long as they may be able.

☞ The other day a father, remonstrating with his boy upon his lying in bed, said that the sun had been up these three hours. "That's no great wonder, father," replied the son, "if I had as many miles to travel to-day as the sun has, I would have risen as soon as he."

Artemus Ward says; "I have already given two cousins to the war, and I stand ready to sacrifice my wife's brother rather'n not see the rebellyon krusht. And if wues cums to wuss, I'll shed every dron of blud all my able-bodied relashuns has got to prosecoot the war."

WHAT IS CHEEK.—Pray, pardon the use of a slang term. Imprudence will not do it, for it may exist without shrewdness; nor self-possession, for that is a passive rather than an active virtue; nor courage, which is often allied with modesty; boldness which a man may have without humor—True, you may say a man has the face to say or do anything; but that is a round about way of expressing one's self, and you cannot speak of his face in an allegorical sense, or call him Cheek. Grant me the term, then, and I will endeavor to explain to my young brotherless, lady readers—Cheek, then, is a rare union of fun impudence, perseverance, and intelligence, endowing its possessor with the power of walking quietly over social obstacles, which form an impassible barrier to the majority of mankind. For example, it was "cheek" that gave Diogenes the advantage over Alexander, under, that procured wives (it is great at that) for the early Romans; that got dear old Falstaff out of his scrapes, enabling him to "make a good end" instead of a perilous bad one; that procured James Boswell's admission to a club and a niche in history denied to many a better man; and enabled the great Barnum to gull his fellow creatures out of a fortune, and when he had spent that, to make a second by telling his dupes face to face how he had done them.

BEAUTIFUL ALLEGORY.—The late John J. Critienden, of Kentucky, was at one time engaged in defending a man who had been indicted for a capital offense. After an elaborate and powerful defense, he closed his effort by the following striking and beautiful allegory:

"When God in his eternal counsel conceived the thought of man's creation he called to him the three ministers who wait constantly upon the throne—Justice, Truth and Mercy—and thus addressed them: 'Shall we make man?' Then said Justice: 'O God made him not, for he will trample upon thy laws.' Truth made no answer also: 'O God, make him not, for he will pollute thy sactuaries.'—But Mercy, dropping down upon her knees, and looking up through her tears, said: 'Make him, for I will watch over him with my care through all the dark paths he may have to tread.' Then God made man and said to him: 'O man, thou art the child of Mercy—go and deal with thy brother.'"

The jury, when he had finished, were drowned in tears, and against evidence and what must have been their own convictions, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Revelations of a Rebel Mail Bag.

Among the captures by our troops at Cumberland Gap, was a large rebel mail bag, the contents of which have afforded both amusement and instruction to those who have examined them. Among other things, the letters confirmed beyond all question that Georgia troops are as dissatisfied as any in the Confederate service. Out of the large number of Georgia letters in the mail, but two placed any confidence whatever in the rebel cause.—One "gentleman" wrote home to his wife not to sell his two pigs for Confederate money, as it was entirely worthless. Another says: "If this war ain't closed soon, there will be no men left. We can't fight a worldful of men; the South can't stand it much longer—our men are all deserting." Another is more explicit: "I have never seen men so out of heart. You had better set your house in order, for by Christmas we shall be back in the Union. If peace don't come soon, we will all desert." This is the spirit displayed in all, or nearly all these letters—a spirit of utter despair for the rebel cause, and a willingness to take the Union on any terms, so it brings peace.

☞ Uncle Sam had a neighbor who was in the habit of working on Sunday, but after a while he joined the church. One day he met the minister to whose church he belonged. "Well, Uncle Sam," said he, "do you see any difference in Mr. P. since he joined the church?" "Oh, yes," said Uncle Sam, "a great difference. Before, when he went out to mend his fences on Sunday, he carried his axe on his shoulder, but now he carries it under his overcoat."

☞ Farmer B. was sitting in the country church. He had been working hard in the harvest field. Hands were scarce, and Farmer B. was dozing. The loud tones of the minister failed to arouse the farmer, until at length the time waning, the good man closed the lids of the Bible, and concluded as follows:

"Indeed, my hearers, the harvest is plenteous, but the laborers are few."

"Yes," exclaimed Farmer B. "I've offered two dollars a day for cradlers, and can't get 'em at that."

☞ It is stated that there is a Spanish girl seventeen years old at Lyons, France, who can lift a weight of five hundred founds with her hair. We have seen many a young girl, who, having beautiful hair, could draw a whole regiment of men with it.

Our Armies and Their Term of Service.

The Times makes a grave mistake in its announcement that "next May, we shall lose at one stroke, all the men in our army except those who are raising under the present draft, and the few who voluntarily entered during the past winter." In the first place, the three hundred thousand men called for in 1861 were mustered into service not in May, but in the fall of the year. The original levy has, it is true, been greatly depleted by the casualities of war, but the ranks have constantly received accession by recruiting, some of the States steadily sending forward fresh men. In the next place a large proportion of the men raised under the order for a draft in August of last year entered there the service for three years; this was the case in all the Western States; and, besides, a considerable body of volunteers were, at the same time, obtained under the former order to fill up the slight deficiency in the quota of the call of 1861, some of the States which had filled their quotas taking this opportunity to fill up their veteran regiments. Thus, of the men now in the field, none will be released until next fall, while more than one-half of all our armies, it is safe to say, have two years yet to serve. It is to be remembered, also, that already there are fifty thousand colored soldiers organized into regiments, and the works of enlistment among the blacks is still so active that this number will soon be doubled.—N. Y. Post.

Drinking Impure Water.

Set a pitcher of red water in a room inhabited, and in a few hours it will have absorbed from the room nearly all the perspired gasses of the room, the air of which will have become purer, but the water utterly filthy. This depends on the fact that water has the faculty of condensing and thereby absolving nearly all the gasses, which it does without increasing its own bulk. The cooler the water is the greater its capacity to contain these gasses. At ordinary temperature a pint of water will contain a pint of carbonic acid gas, and capacity is nearly doubled by reducing the temperature to that ice. Hence water kept in the room awhile is always unfit for use, and should be often removed, whether it has become warm or not. And for the same reason the water in a pump should all be pumped in the morning before any is used. That which has stood in a pitcher over night is not fit for coffee water in the morning. Impure water is more injurious to health than impure air, and every person should provide the means of obtaining fresh pure water for all domestic uses.

"TAKEN ROOMS."—In the course of conversation between our informant and Gen. Rosecrans, says an Indiana paper, allusion was made to the question of his ability to hold Chattanooga, whereupon the General, looking round upon his quarters, smilingly remarked, "Tell the people of Ohio that I have taken rooms at Chattanooga." And that much from "Old Rosy" is "nuff ced."

☞ A gentleman riding through Sydenham saw a board with "This Cottage for Sail" painted on it. As he was always ready for a pleasant joke, and seeing a woman in front of the house, he stopped and asked her very politely, "when the cottage was to sail?" "Just as soon as the man comes who can raise the wind," was the quiet reply.

WISH TO COME BACK.—Jefferson county, in the Valley, and in the Southwest, Washington, Pulaski, Wythe, Tazewell, Russell, Scott, Buchanan, and Wise counties, have petitioned to be admitted into the State of West Virginia. Their application is now before the Legislature at Wheeling for its decision.

☞ At a hotel table one day one boarder remarked to his neighbor—"This must be a very healthy place for chickens."

"Why so?" said the other.

"Because I never see any dead ones about."

☞ The rebel Government talks of paying the soldiers liberally after the war. Its liberality reminds us of the poor fellow's will: "I have nothing; I owe everybody; the rest I give to the poor."

☞ Coleridge, the poet and philosopher, once arriving at an inn, called out, "Waiter, do you dine here collectively or individually?" "Sir," replied the knight of the napkin, "we dines at six."

☞ A contemporary finds fault with the practice of putting Latin inscriptions on tombstones. But what more appropriate place than a grave-yard can there be for a dead language?

☞ Mr. G——, a clergyman, being, recently, absent from home, his son, of four years was asked to pronounce the blessing. "No," he replied, "I don't like the looks of them taters!"

☞ The Union County Committee is requested to meet at the Court House, in Beaver, on Tuesday the 27th inst. at 1 o'clock p m, for the transaction of important business.
D. L. IMBRIE, Ch'n

Beaver County.

We can now give the official returns of the vote of Beaver county at the late election, which will be found in our paper to day. We have a clear majority, as will be seen, for Gov Curtin, of 981, and for Judge Agnew of 983, and all the rest of the ticket elected by handsome majorities.

This is truly a glorious result, and we again congratulate the Union men of Beaver county upon the victory they have achieved. The enemies of our government have been defeated by the true and loyal voters, and that, too, under great disadvantages against us. Every one knows that large numbers of our patriotic men were in the army and could not vote. If they could have done so, our majority would have been increased at least 600. We have had to contend against the malignant falsehoods of bad men who have been traveling over the county during the whole summer.—Could we have had three weeks more, there would not have been a corporal's guard left of the Copperhead friends of Southern treason.

Judge Woodward and his hangers-on have been severely rebuked and taught a lesson that no man or men can successfully make war against their country.

We rejoice that Beaver county has stood so nobly up in the work, in this time of our national trouble. Men of all the old parties have stood together, shoulder to shoulder, doing their duty as patriots.

In common with good men in every part of the State we feel proud that our fellow-townsman, Judge Agnew, has been fully sustained, his vote being above all others in this county.—He was eminently entitled to the re-home for his great moral worth, his justly high position as a Judge and a lawyer. We heartily congratulate him upon his elevation, by the people, to so high a position as Judge of Supreme Court of this State. All we regret is that he is about to leave us. In this District he has won the respect and secured the confidence of the entire people. We hope some one may be appointed capable of filling his place. Who is the man?

Lecture in Freedom.

Rev. J. A. Swaney will deliver a lecture on, "CURIOUS SUPERSTITIONS—ANCIENT AND MODERN," in the M. E. Church, Freedom, Pa., Tuesday evening, Oct. 27th. Tickets 25 cents,—the proceeds of the lecture to be appropriated to the treasury of the M. E. Sabbath School. The known popularity of the Reverend gentleman, and the object, should secure a large attendance.

Teachers' County Institute.

After consulting many Teachers and friends of education, we have concluded to divide our County into three districts, and hold Institutes at the following places viz:

At Hookstown, Oct. 29 and 30.
Darlington, Nov. 6 and 7.
Concord Church, in North Sewickly township, Nov. 26 and 27.

The exercises will commence at 8 o'clock a.m., and consist of Class Drills, Essays, Educational Reports, Discussions on Educational subjects, and best methods of teaching, &c.

Teachers, parents, School Directors and all who desire to see the cause of Education advanced by improving our Teachers and Schools, are earnestly requested to be present at the most convenient Institute.

Teachers will please prepare Essays and Educational Reports on subjects intimately connected with the welfare of our schools and the Teachers Profession.

Appropriate Lectures will be delivered before the Institute during the evening sessions.

J. I. REED, Co. Supt.
Darlington, Oct. 19, '63.

ARRESTED.—For some time past, Capt. Adam Poe and family, residing near Georgetown in this county have been placed in great danger and alarm, by some persons stoning their house, breaking windows, &c. This has been done repeatedly during the past two weeks, but every effort to detect the offenders, who were concealed in a cornfield near the house, proved unavailing until yesterday (Thursday) when a boy who lived with the guilty parties, made information against them. It seems to have been their intention to draw Capt. Poe out of the house in their pursuit and then rob or otherwise maltreat him. The names of the prisoners are Thomas Lewellen and Thomas Hogan. They were bro't to Beaver and lodged in jail Friday morning.—Star, Oct. 16.

The Glorious Result.

The election in Pennsylvania has closed, and the result is a clear and decided victory of the friends of the Constitution and Laws, over the traitors of the South, and their allies, the Copperheads of the North. It is cheering and encouraging to the friends of freedom, everywhere, to witness such devotion to our free institutions, in the people of our glorious old Commonwealth.

The campaign on the part of the friends of the Union, did not commence until a few weeks before the election, but there did not appear to be much necessity for any great effort, for the people throughout the State were thoroughly aroused to the great importance of the contest. Every man felt that it was not a mere political contest between parties, or for the support of particular men, but that the life of the government, the existence of this great Republic depended upon the action of Pennsylvania. Governor Curtin, our present excellent and most worthy Chief Magistrate represented the principles of the friends of the Union. He was chosen by them because they had entire confidence in his integrity, ability and sincere and ardent devotion to his country, and well and nobly has he been sustained by the loyal, the wise and good of Pennsylvania.

In view of all the circumstances, the victory which the friends of our country have achieved is extraordinary. For months the unscrupulous and unprincipled leaders of the allies of Southern treason, were in the field, making the mightiest effort for the overthrow of the government. The great masses of the people, of all the old organizations, were, at heart, truly loyal, and desired to support their country; but they were misled and misinformed by those who were totally destitute of moral principle and would willingly barter their country's liberties, for the gratification of their own selfish and unholy ambition.—Such men we have in our midst, in this county. It is true that the men who call themselves Democrats, and now claim to be leaders are men who have no ability, no character for anything which would constitute good citizens, and are not, and never were, considered ever in the party to which they belonged, fifth-rate men. Yet these men, by their incessant preaching of wicked doctrines, such barefaced and unmitigated falsehoods as to the rebellion and its causes and objects, did mislead many good men who had not informed themselves as to the true state of the case. Notwithstanding all the efforts of the friends of the South, the friends of our country and the cause of human liberty and human rights, have been, and we now feel most confident will be, entirely successful in crushing out rebellion, and restore peace and prosperity to this country, and that she will go on sowing the seeds of civil and religious liberty until all the nations of the earth shall be free.

We would say a word as to those men who have heretofore belonged to the Democratic party, in this State.—Everywhere we have seen the wisest, the best and most intelligent of that party come out nobly in the face of the vilest abuse by bad men, and against their old party prejudices and feelings, in support of the government. All honor to such men!—Amongst the number of devoted patriots who have hitherto belonged to that party, stands the Hon. Thos Cunningham, a life long Democrat, eminent for his undoubted talents, ability and integrity. He was a member of the Charleston Convention and gave his hearty support to Douglass in opposition to the Southern disunionists, and aristocratic dictators. Since that time, and particularly from the time our flag was fired upon by Southern traitors, he has given himself to the support of his country in her time of peril, and in the contest which has just passed he contributed greatly, by his fearless course, to the victory of the friends of the Union. We have everywhere hosts of good and true men of that party who have bravely battled against the allies of the South, in this State.

Our majority in this State is about 20,000; the precise number cannot be ascertained until we receive the official returns. If to this majority we could have added the vote of the citizens, now in the army, battling for their country's constitution, our majority would exceed 100,000. We have about 200,000 men in the army that is 200 Regiments, and after making full allowance for losses in battle and otherwise we have at least 120,000 men, of whom 90,000 are voters. Of that number, judging from the experience of the men and of the course pursued by the soldiers who are at home, we would have had on the side of the Union at least four-fifths, which leaves us a majority of the army vote, of 72,000. Of the soldiers' vote we have been deprived by the decision of the Supreme Court, who said that the men who are fighting for the Constitution, have no constitutional right to vote.

In Ohio that arch-traitor Vallandigham has been defeated by the overwhelming majority of about 100 000 Thus that great State has been redeemed from the curse of disloyalty, treason has been rebuked and will not be again permitted to raise its horrid head. The President has been fully sustained, and his wisdom and patriotism vindicated.

We rejoice that the great State of Pennsylvania and Ohio will not be arrayed with the State of New York, which is cursed with the rule of such infernal traitors as Seymour and the Woods. Those three States, if united, could paralize the government and restore peace by subjection to traitors in arms; but we now have the gratifying assurance that it will be sustained at all hazards.

The President can now go on with renewed energy and vigor, sure of the support of the people, "who are at his back," and speedily and forever crush out Southern rebellion and mean and hateful copperheads in the North, until our country is again restored to the blessings of peace. We will probably again recur to this subject in a future issue.

State Treasurer.

The next Legislature will, early in January, elect a State Treasurer for the ensuing year. The present occupant of that office will undoubtedly be changed. We do not know that he has done anything wrong, but the friends of the Union cause can present men in every way his superior. The old Keystone has been almost uniformly fortunate in her State Treasurers. Few serious blunders have ever been committed, and in no instance have we had any defalcation.—This is a matter upon which we can congratulate ourselves, without respect to party. The leading financial men of this State regretted very much last winter to lose the services of Henry D. Moore, who, from the opening of the war, had administered our finances with great credit to himself and profit to the State. If his services can be again secured, we think no one else should be thought of, while the present war lasts. A new man might do well, but we all know that Mr. Moore has conducted our finances admirably, and this is no time to swop horses. With him at the helm, and our old friend Thomas Nicholson, of Beaver, as Chief Clerk, every well-informed man in the State would know that all was right with the old Keystone money boxes. We should, therefore, like to know if Mr. Moore will consent to be a candidate, and if so, we will give him our vote to keep the State's money, up to the time this infamous rebellion is suppressed.—Pittsburg Commercial.

EDITOR ARGUS: There was a little incident occurred at a Democratic meeting at New Brighton on the evening of the 12th (the evening before the election), that is worth recording, and the record preserved for future reference.

The speaker (S. B. Wilson, Esq.,) was descanting largely upon the outrages perpetrated by the Administration upon the liberties of the people, and comparing the English method of redressing such wrongs with our method of redress. He said that "Charles II, of England, lost his head on the scaffold, and we would, on to-morrow, decapitate Andy, and a year hence we would take the head off Old Abe."—Mr. Henry Staufer rose and asked the speaker "what they were going to do with Jeff Davis?" Mr. Wilson did not deign a reply, as that was not in their programme; but continued his abuse of the administration, without even a passing censure of the arch-traitor, to the unqualified satisfaction of the "unterrified." ☞ The President has issued a Proclamation calling for 300,000 men, to be raised by the different States. The quota is to be filled by the 5th day of January, 1864, by enlistment; failing in that, a draft will then be made to raise the requisite number.

The County Commissioners pay the Expenses of the late Union Convention.

EDITOR ARGUS: I am informed by a reliable party, that at a copperhead meeting, held in Brighton tp., a few days before the election, one Daugherty, who pretends to be a copperhead lawyer and orator, addressed the meeting in his usual eloquent and masterly style. After proving, conclusively, that the country was "gone up," unless Woodward was elected, he turned his attention to the large Union Meeting, held in Beaver on the 23d ultimo. He said that the expenses of that meeting was TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS, and that it was paid out of the Treasury of Beaver county, and that "you and I, my fellow-tax payers, have to foot the bill." I think comment is unnecessary. It shows the desperate means unprincipled men will adopt to bolster up a bad cause. Of course Daugherty knew better; and why did he make the ridiculous and false assertion? Was it done in the way of a joke? or was Daugherty simple enough to think that his audience swallowed his senseless balderdash.—He may have been uttering this slander against the County Commissioners so often, that he finally got to believe it himself. Part of his hearers, no doubt, took it all down for a fact. For men that are opposed to all the improvements of the country, and wont let the Tariff run through their farms, I think are fit subjects to believe anything. Daugherty has certainly immortalized himself. His herculian efforts, in behalf of copperheadism, will one day meet its just reward. Persevere, Edward, and, instead of being a Delegate to the State Convention, you may be a candidate for some of the honors flowing from that august body. It was a bold stroke, Edward, worthy the cause and the occasion. The great leader himself would scarce have ventured an assertion so damaging to the opposition. But "tall oaks from little acorns grow." VINDEX.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.

Provision has been made in case the rebels undertake another raid in to Maryland and Pennsylvania, to attend to them in order this time. The Tenth New Jersey, and other troops, went up through Chambersburg yesterday.

It is said, although I doubt it, that Lee is falling back.

From Meade's Army.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Accounts from the Army of the Potomac say there are no tidings of Lee's whereabouts as he has recently very materially changed his position.

Such dispositions have been made of our own army as will meet all contingencies.

There is no truth in the report that Gen. Meade's army is within the defenses of Washington.

Heavy firing of artillery was, for an hour or two, heard this morning in the direction of Manassas.

OBITUARY.

Died, Oct. 4th, of Diptheria, in Darlington tp., Ada, daughter of Alexander and Annie Mariah Miller, aged 10 years and 9 months.

God in his infinite mercy has been pleased to call her from our midst to join the Heavenly Hosts above. She is free from all her earthly pain, and wish her not back again in this world of rebellion. 'Tis true her little feet will be heard no more pattering down the aisle to meet her Sabbath School teacher and to greet her little mates with that angelical smile that was always found beaming in her youthful eye. Neither will her sweet voice be heard in the home circle; no more will she unite with those whom she has so pleasantly passed the summer; but, alas! she sleeps the sleep of death.—she has left this unfriendly world and gone to join the songs of nobler praise, "where congregations ne'er break up and Sabbaths have no end."

I will say to you who were her mates and companions in this world, take warning! your turn may come next. Love Jesus, who died that you might live, and be prepared to meet Ada. And to you, her dear parents, who stood weeping o'er her little grave, weep no longer; breathe not a sigh; dry your tears with the words of hope and consolation that "the Lord giveth and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." And to you, her sisters and little brothers, who are left to mourn her loss, remember, "blessed are they who mourn for they shall be comforted." Be faithful and devoted lovers of the Saviour, with the assurance that when the last struggle of life is o'er, that you will meet those who have gone to that spiritual Land to be separated no more forever.

Little did we think Ada,
When last we saw thy lovely face,
That we so soon Ada,
Would follow thee to thy resting place.

You were but a bud Ada,
Just blooming in life's youthful mound,
But now thou art gone Ada,
To where brighter buds are found.

Thy little voice was sweet Ada,
Both in thy play and songs of praise,
But, alas! thou art gone Ada,
To learn of bright and better days.

We will not weep for thee, Ada,
Nor let a tear in our eyes be started,
For 't was the will of God, Ada,
That you from us was parted.

LIZZIE.

MARRIED.—On the 15th inst., by Rev. John Brown, Mr. ROBERT LOGAN, to Miss LUCINDA BREWER, all of Beaver county.

Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment

A CERTAIN CURE FOR PAINS AND ACHES, and warranted superior to any other. Croup it positively cures; relief is absolutely sure immediately it is used. Mothers remember this, and arm yourselves with a bottle without delay. Croup is disease which gives no notice, frequently attacking the child in the dead hour of night: before a physician can be summoned it may be too late. Remember, the Venetian Liniment never fails. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Office, 56 Cortlandt Street, New-York.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS

The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a PREMATURE GRAVE. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

are the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor, Dr. Smith of Bridgewater sole agent for this County.

THE GOLDEN JUBILEE ALWAYS REALIZED HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, Leg and inflamed feet, all these the most cadets, MOTHERS REMEMBER that, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for at stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightly wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Yo cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH

Thefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp,

DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving in taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extensive press. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., will be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients, that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body, will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort, to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to,

Notice

IS hereby given that I have been appointed as Surgeon to the Pension Department, to examine wounded and invalid Soldiers, discharged from the service; that my authority extends to any County, State or Territory, and that I am now ready to enter upon the discharge of my duties here.

GEORGE McCOOK, M. D.,
Oct. 15-tf. Examining Surgeon.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux; many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and, giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth W
